

My name is Bhageswari Dhanasekaran (Bhagya), and I'm contesting for the TAGDV EC – Member at Large position. I live in Chester Springs, PA, with my husband Seethapathi Krishnamoorthy and two wonderful children.

I have been part of TAGDV since 2017, and my passion for Tamil volunteering began in 2018 as a teacher at the ETP School. I truly enjoy teaching Tamil to children and sharing the rich values of our culture and traditions with them. Through teaching, I've gained wonderful experiences and meaningful connections with both kids and families.

Over the years, I've had the opportunity to encourage all my kids to participate in many TAGDV events. In the last couple of years, that involvement has inspired me to take on new roles as a choreographer, judge for competitions, and emcee for cultural programs. Each of these experiences has been truly special and rewarding. Now, I feel it's time to give back to the community that has given me so much.

I'm inspired by activities that focus on kids and youth, and I love being part of such meaningful initiatives across communities.

My strength is execution and I believe in community service. I Committed to bring more initiatives for our kids, unity, transparency, positivity and lasting impact among our TAGDV families, so together we can create a stronger, more connected environment for ourselves and for our children.